

Benny Gool
 Benny Gool has been a professional photographer/camera operator for about 20 years, starting at the alternative newspaper Grassroots. He worked at the Cape Times, with a spell as chief photographer. His photographs have been published across the world, and have garnered many national awards. He is currently working as a freelance cameraman/director.

The promise of democracy